PROVINCETOWN HUMAN RESOURCES OFFICE

Position Opening

Police Officer

The Provincetown Police Department is currently accepting information packets/resumes from highly motivated, community-oriented individuals who want to be part of a dynamic team. The position of Police Officer requires that applicants pass an extensive background check, medical, physical, drug, and psychological testing. A high school diploma or equivalent is required, and a college degree is highly desirable. Candidates with full time Municipal Police Training Committee (MPTC) academy certification and prior public safety experience are strongly preferred, but neither certification nor prior service is required. This is a full-time year-round position with a full benefits package. The starting pay range is $59,883 and may vary depending on training and experience. The Provincetown Police Department is committed to continuing to diversify our work force and we encourage men and women with diverse, racial, cultural and ethnic backgrounds to apply. We are a progressive organization that values and respects diversity among our employees and within our community.

Please submit letter of interest, complete resume, copies of education and training certifications and a 2-page personal biography narrative to Human Resources, Town of Provincetown, 260 Commercial Street, Provincetown, MA 02657 or hr@provincetown-ma.gov. The closing date for initial consideration for this posting is 11:00am on November 13, 2020. This announcement will remain active until the position is filled.

The Town of Provincetown, Massachusetts is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, creed, religion, sex, national origin, marital status, age, or sexual preference, or any other category protected under the state and federal anti-discrimination laws.
