

PROVINCETOWN HISTORIC COMMISSION

February 1, 2013

Members present: Eric Dray, Stephen Milkewicz,, Susan Avellar, Char Priolo, Deborah Minsky, Polly Burnell

Members absent: Stephen Borkowski, excused

Agenda:

1. Minutes – Motion by C. Priolo to approve the minutes of September 7, 2012 with the spelling errors corrected.
2nd D. Minsky Vote: 5 yes
2. Public Statements: None
3. CPC Applications:
Schoolhouse Gallery/WOMR has submitted a complete application to replace and/or repair windows and storm windows, exterior doors, improve accessibility and security, repaint building and bell tower and to restore floor on second floor,
4. Building Provincetown: Mr. Dunlap still hopes to have the book available by 2014.
5. Interpretative Materials:
Art Studio Tours, no work to date
6. Heritage Collection Artifacts: No report
7. Oral History: C. Priolo is waiting for Joyce Johnson in order to continue with the work. Ms. Johnson has been ill.
8. New Business:
Continued discussion of front yards being altered by continued curb cuts and also fencing issues
Mass. Memories will be having a meeting sometime in February
Smithsonian Magazine has named Provincetown one of the ten most interesting towns for culture in America.
9. Next meetings will be held March 1, 2013/9AM
10. Motion to adjourn by P. Burnell
2nd D. Minsky Vote 6 yes