David Gardner at 10:25 am

PRESENTATION: 1 ½ years ago CCRT given funds usually earmarked for landscaping/improvement for enhancing and improving bike path maps. Even though unable to physically connect some bike paths, we can connect them via unified signage.

Aim for the Master Bike Plan, CCRT to plan/place signage and CCC to fabricate signs.

Want to create bike design guidelines that conform to national guidelines.

Four types of signs: confirmation, regulatory, directional, informational

Proposed signs would be confirmational, showing visitors that the cape as regional network of bike paths.

Also partnering with Massdot and Baystate Greenway (similar sign but without Cape Cod logo)

Does the Cape Cod National Seashore connection from Race Point Road to MacMillan Wharf qualify? Or will the Seashore use their own signage? If the signage is done with CCRT money, then saved funds may be used for roadway improvements.

Signage of Claire Saltonstahl Bikeway would need to be coordinated with Massdot.

David Gardner gave update on Cape Cod National Seashore and MacMillan Wharf connection: The existing grant for the project is not enough since some road improvements/widening within the right of way will be needed, so a second grant has been submitted. The Seashore attends their meetings and no conflict has come up regarding signage. They are working together on all phases of project.

The bike committee needs clarification on the Claire Saltonstahl bikeway to see if signage is appropriate there.

CCRT wants Bike Committee to come up with wish list of where they would like to see signs. CCRT will take the recommendations and see what they can do.
